Hon. President's Remarks

The Inverness Opera Company, in presenting "New Moon," are confident that this will bring as much pleasure to their supporters as their previous shows have done in the past.

Few of the audience, however, will know of the great difficulties which had to be overcome so that the show could go on. For some time it was very doubtful if a theatre could be obtained. Despite this uncertainty, and under great hardship, the Company continued to rehearse. Their optimism, plus a great deal of organisation, paid off, and now we see them once again in the Empire Theatre. It is a saddening thought that despite all our claims to make Inverness an oasis of culture in the Highlands, we still lack a suitable theatre.

This emphasises the need for your continued support and your help in increasing the numbers of our Associate Members, so that we can go forward with the knowledge that eventually our claims for a new theatre will have to be faced by the authorities.

Thanking you,

Yours,

KAY GRIGOR.
