CAWDOR

600 Years of Highland History

Castle Cawdor has been the home of the Thanes of Cawdor since the early 14th Century. This still-daunting fortress home of the present Earl of Cawdor, with its drawbridge, its ancient tower built around a tree, and its freshwater well inside the house, is a glorious reminder of Scotland's colourful and often bloody history.

But there's more to the Castle than just its past. Nature trails colourful gardens, a pitch and putt course, a picnic area. gift shop, licensed restaurant and snack bar combine to make it a great place to spend a day.

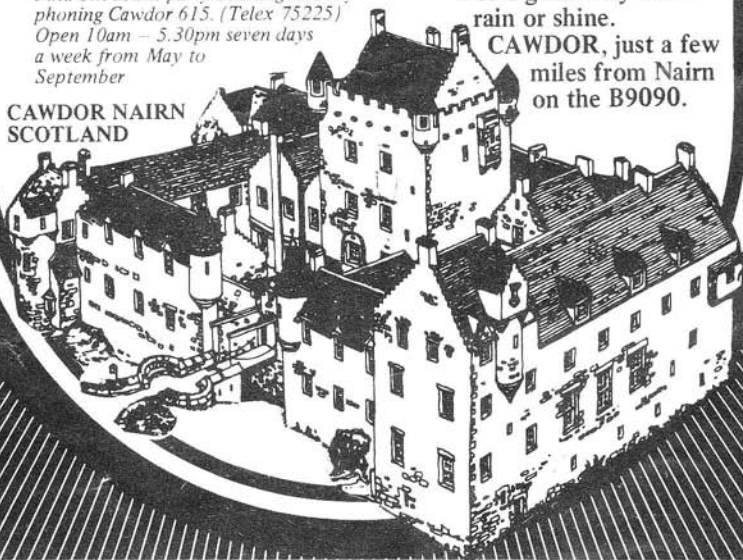

Coach parties are welcome — parking is free and it's a day out for the driver as well.

*Find out about party booking rates by phoning Cawdor 615. (Telex 75225)
Open 10am — 5.30pm seven days a week from May to September*

For a grand day out — rain or shine.

Hon President's Remarks

I am naturally very proud to be Honorary President of the Inverness Opera Company who continue to prove their versatility with each successive production. In direct contrast to their March production of Yeoman of the Guard they now present Hello Dolly, an American Musical set in New York in the 1890s. It is a light-hearted story about Mrs Dolly Gallagher Levi who insists on "match-making" and meddling in other people's lives. You will find you are familiar with the music and, of course, who does not know the very catchy number "Hello Dolly"?

With Joan Murray in charge of wardrobe and George Reynold's imaginative sets we can look forward to a most colourful show.

Hello Dolly is produced by Bill Harvey. Bill has assisted with many previous productions — he has a positive flair for creating props. etc. — and his enthusiasm combined with an orchestra under the baton of John Worth will ensure a lively and musically entertaining evening.

I wish to thank our Patrons for their continued support; the Company would welcome additional Patrons and details of the scheme are available from the Secretary.

And now on with the show and welcome to Hello Dolly.

Kay Grigor

About the Show

Hello Dolly! is the story of Mrs Levi's efforts to marry Horace Vandergelder, the well-known half-a-millionaire, so that she can send his money circulating like rainwater, the way her late husband Ephraim Levi taught her. Along the way she also succeeds in matching up the young and beautiful Widow Molloy with Vandergelder's head clerk, Cornelius Hackl; Cornelius's assistant Barnaby Tucker with Mrs Molloy's assistant, Minnie Fay; and the struggling artist Ambrose Kemper with Mr Vandergelder's weeping niece, Ermengarde. Mrs Levi tracks Vandergelder to his hay and feed store in Yonkers, then by train back to Mrs Molloy's hat shop in New York, out into the streets of the city where they are all caught up in the great Fourteenth Street Association Parade, and then to the most elegant and expensive restaurant in town, the Harmonia Gardens, where Dolly is greeted by the waiters, cooks, doormen and wine stewards in one of the most famous songs in the history of American musical comedy — Hello Dolly!
