Inverness Opera Company

---

An attempt has been made by our Producer to take a fresh look at the Shows and to give an honest presentation without the buffoonery usually seen in amateur productions. Trial by Jury is treated as a piece firmly based in reality with the Sceptics close to cynicism. Let us listen afresh to the lines which perhaps have become too familiar and hear the many palpable bits Gilbert accords against the very people who flocked to D'Oly Carte's Theatre. Pirates of Penzance in contrast is treated as a fantasy with the Policemen representing the proper young men thought suitable for the daughters of Society but lacking the manly qualities of the rest, honesty, courage, compassion and a zest for life all shown in abundance in the players of the Pirates.

TIME FOR THE CURTAIN TO GO UP — OR DOWN — OR SIDEWAYS?

In a theatre you can expect all three.

There are in fact dozens of different ways we know of for dealing with curtains. Festoon them, frill them, line them with white blackout material which is worth a few nights better sleep. We can even motorise them!

If you want to know more about good curtains, nice curtains, beautiful curtains, come in to Martin of Inverness — we've got the hang of them.

Come on over to Ross-shire

With the opening of the Kessock Bridge and it's associated new highways Ross-shire is now "just up the road". Twenty minutes from Inverness brings you to the county town of Dingwall — enjoy a welcome change of scene...do some shopping; lunch on the Black Isle and be back home for tea.

The historic Burgh of Tain and the rolling farm land of East Ross are now less than an hours drive away. And the glories of Wester Ross are much more accessible. Come on over to Ross-shire — you'll see it's worth the trip, have a breath of fresh air.
