From our Honorary President:

Good evening Ladies and Gentlemen and welcome to 'Me and My Girl'. This has been a particularly busy year for the Company. After 'The Mikado' last March, it was decided at the Annual General Meeting in May to present a Summer Show. After a very concentrated rehearsal period, 'Guys and Dolls' played for three successful performances in August, and I take this opportunity of thanking you for supporting this new venture.

At the end of this week's run, the Company will take a short break before commencing rehearsals for this year's Summer Show which will be the 1950's favourite 'The Pajama Game'. Set in a pajama factory in the 50's, the show is jam-packed with terrific musical numbers. I hope that we can count on your support for this project.

In an effort to try to please the wide variety of musical tastes both within the Company and also you, our audience, it has been decided to present a Gilbert and Sullivan Double Bill next March. 'Trial By Jury' was presented in 1985 along with 'Pirates of Penzance', but next year we are coupling it with 'HMS Pinafore', which has never been performed by the company before, although this same double bill was very successfully presented by the D'oyly Carte Company a few years ago in Eden Court.

I hope that these forthcoming productions will have your usual kind support, and if you are not already a Patron of Inverness Opera Company, may I appeal to you to consider becoming one. For a very modest subscription, you will receive priority booking of two seats for the performance of your choice and your name will appear in the programme.

Once again I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the Management and Staff of Eden Court for the tremendous help and assistance they extend to us. And now I hope you will sit back, relax, and enjoy tonight's Show.

'Me and My Girl' was first presented at the Victoria Palace, London on 16th December 1937 and broke box office records – becoming the second longest running musical comedy of its day. It was very much a vehicle for Lupino Lane – a music hall veteran who was so sure of its success that he produced it himself at considerable financial risk.

The show was revived in the West End at the Adelphi Theatre on 12th February 1985, and ran for many years – eventually playing a national tour. The original star of the revival was Robert Lindsay, who won an Olivier Award in London and a Tony Award when the show opened on Broadway the following year.

Inverness Opera Company was pleased to gain the rights last year to perform 'Me and My Girl' – a show it has never presented before.

Inverness Opera Company would like to thank their Patrons and Commercial Patrons for their continued support in mounting this production.

They would also like to thank the Management and Staff of Eden Court for their invaluable help and assistance.

The Story of 'ME AND MY GIRL'

Hareford Hall, which for centuries has been the family seat of the Earls of Hareford, is in a state of excitement awaiting the new heir to the title. Unfortunately for the family they discover that the new heir is none other than Bill Snibson, a Cockney barrow-boy from Lambeth.

The Duchess of Dene, Bill's new-found aunt and one of the estate executors, wishes to educate Bill in the ways of the gentry in order to make him a fit and proper person to inherit the title. This includes separating him from Sally Smith, his girlfriend, a prospect Bill is very unhappy about. As well as this, Bill has to contend with the amorous advances of his cousin, Lady Jaqueline Carstone, whose eye is firmly on the family fortune Bill stands to inherit.

Bill's other cousin the Hon Gerald Bolingbroke is extremely resentful of him, as not only was he hoping to access some of the fortune himself, but he is also madly in love with Lady Jaqueline, who invariably spurns his advances.

The other estate executor, Sir John Tremayne, initially despises Bill too, but eventually feels sorry for Bill and Sally's plight when he sees how much in love they are. Sir John sets out to defy the Duchess and encourage the illicit love affair. This proves difficult as the Duchess is very strong-willed, and he is also wary of alienating her – having been secretly in love with her for years.

Will Sir John succeed in re-uniting Bill and Sally, and will Bill succeed to the title, or retire on an annuity?

Now watch and see . . .
